Rockville, Conn., June 7.—The report
of Medical Examiner Higgins of South Coventry, in the case of John Robertson, the insane patient of the poor
house in South Coventry, whose death has aroused considerable indignation in that town, because of alleged cruelty on the part of the town officials, was to-night received by Coroner Phelps.
The medical examiner reports that Robertson died from an apoplectic convulsion, which he was frequently subject
to.
He reports that Robertson broke his arm on the Thursday previous to his death by his own carelessness, and that Henry Walker, who was in charge of the poorhouse, was not in any way responsible for the injury. The selectmen are investigating the case in South Coventry, but has taken no action in the matter. It is probable that no arrests will be made.

McGuire's Condition Critical.

Peter McGuire, who was seriously injured at the jail the other morning
by diving off his cot into a corner and was taken to the hospital, was reported last night as being in a critical condition, and it was thought that he would probably live but a few hours.

Notice.

After an absence of two years I will again return to the boarding and livery stable, 141 Union street, which has been occupied lately by W. D. Augur.

THOMPSON, WILLIS & NEWGENT,

One of the leading clothing manufacturing firms in Boston, decide to permanently retire from business. Their stock largely bought by

C. E. LONGLEY & CO.,

Who will retail the same in this and other cities where they have stores, New Haven getting a large slice of the stock.

A Complete Revolution in the Prices for the Highest Grades of Men's and Boys' Clothing.

The following correspondence tells the story:

C. E. Longley & Co.,

New Haven, Conn.

THOMPSON, WILLIS & NEWGENT
CLOTHING
275 N. CHURCH ST.
BOSTON, MAY 21, 1895

Gentlemen:

Having decided to permanently retire from the Wholesale Clothing business, we hereby offer our entire stock for sale, amounting to about $150,000.

The stock is in every way very desirable, consisting as it does of large and well assorted lots, and has all been manufactured this season.

The store which we occupy is in the very heart of the Retail centre, and is directly opposite the large Retail stores of A. Shuman & Co., Jordan, Marsh & Co., and C. F. Hovey & Co., and can be had by the purchaser of the stock, if desired, for the purpose of retailing
the same.

Bids for this stock are requested on the following terms:
$10,000 to be paid upon acceptance of the bid, the balance of the purchase in three equal payments of thirty, sixty, and ninety days.
The right is reserved to reject any and all bids.

Yours respectfully,

Thompson Willis Newgent

Upon the receipt of the above we opened negotiations for the purchase of the best part of their stock. The following dispatch shows the result:

TO C. E. LONGLEY & CO.:

IF YOUR OFFER OF YESTERDAY HOLDS GOOD TO-DAY WE WILL ACCEPT. CASH

TEN DAYS. WIRE REPLY. (Signed)

BOSTON, 5-29, 1895.

THOMPSON, WILLIS & NEWGENT.

That our offer was a low one goes without saying, but it was accepted. We shall not, however, sell the stock in Boston, as they suggested could be done. We prefer to retail it at home and share with our customers the benefits which will accrue from this purchase. THOMPSON, WILLIS & NEWGENT have always stood high in the trade as manufacturers of the best grades of Men's, Boys' and Children's Clothing, and we purchased what we considered the cream of their stock.
No better goods were ever sold over our counters than we shall offer when we begin the sale of this stock on Thursday morning. The prices paid average about one half the cost to manufacture, and we shall retail it at a small advance over and above the cost to us. NOTE PRICES QUOTED BELOW:

The same lots were sold at wholesale by T. W. & N. for $3.50 and $4.

Ten lots of Boys' Suits, 5 to 16 years, for $2.45, their prices at wholesale were $4 and $5.

Eight lots of Boys' Suits, 5 to 16 years, all very fine, new, and in every way elegant suits, for $4.95. These are the regular $7.50, $8.50 and $10 Suits.

The same sizes for Young Men for $7.50, the regular $12 grade.

Other lots, the same sizes, for $8.50, that are regular $15 Suits.

Very fine Suits for Young Men for $9.75, many new lots at the price, and they are the same that T. W. & N. have been jobbing for $13.50, $14 and $15, double and single-breasted light and dark colors, blacks and blues included.

In order to make this sale doubly interesting in our Boys' Department, we have made big cuts in the prices of much of our own stock in order to BRING It down, so to speak, on a level with the prices for Thompson, Willis & Newgent's stock.
For instance, Boys' Suits, $6.50 and $7.50, that were $8 and $12, sizes 31 to 33.

Boys' Suits for $5.00, 9 to 16 years, that were $7.50, $8.50 and $10.

50 dozen Boys' and Children's Flannel, Cheviot and Perce
Waists for 49c, that were 75c and $1.00.

We unhesitatingly say that there's more in it for purchasers than in any stock that we ever sold.
